Hoopeston Area High School sets Homecoming activities

The Hoopeston Area Cornjerkers want to kick some...footballs tonight as they face off against Gibson City for their Homecoming game.

The Cornjerkers take to the field at 7 p.m., but Homecoming activities will begin long before that.

The school will hold a pep assembly at 10 a.m., followed by the annual parade downtown at 2 p.m.

No Homecoming would be complete without a court and king and queen candidates. Members of this year's Homecoming court include Lori Goodrum and Juan Acosta, freshmen; Melia Shipman and Marvin Hunt, sophomores; and Jamie Watson and Kyle Voyles, juniors.

Queen candidates are Sara Brown, Shannon Ellis, Jennifer Knapp and Evy Solis.

King candidates are Donnie Inman, Bobby Potter, Troy Stevens and Grant

Webber.

The Hoopeston Area Sports Boosters will hold their annual hog roast as part of Homecoming activities. Serving begins at 5 p.m. from the athletic shed on the east side of the football field. A sandwich and chips is $3 and carry-outs are available.

Also, the cheerleaders are selling Homecoming
